ASB BURSARY APPLICATION & GUIDELINES

BACKGROUND SUMMARY

We would like to know more about you. Please include a 250 word summary briefly describing your background, a description of community activities, and your future aspirations.

DECLARATION

I declare the foregoing information is correct and that if I am awarded the bursary, I am prepared to use it this year.

Signature of Applicant: _____ Date: _____

GUIDELINES

- Two $500 bursaries are awarded per calendar year with the intent of providing support to individuals enrolling in agricultural-related post secondary programs.
- Bursaries are not restricted to any post secondary education institution, but rather to be evaluated on the basis of courses taken and their agricultural content.
- Applicants who have not received an ASB Bursary award in the past will be given greater consideration.
- Advertisement for the submission of bursary applications will be made in the local newspaper, Leduc County website, and the Black Gold Regional School Division website.
- Deadline for the receipt of applications is November 30th for the current school year.
- Bursary Application must include all of the following:
  - ✓ Completed Application Form
  - ✓ Proof of Acceptance (Copy of Acceptance Letter or Course Registration)
  - ✓ List Information for Community Activities
  - ✓ Background Summary
- The Agricultural Service Board will review all eligible applicants at the first scheduled Agricultural Service Board meeting following the November 30th deadline.
- Once selected, the two recipients will each be awarded their $500 bursary upon receipt of proof of payment of tuition. All applicants will be contacted once selection has been finalized.
- The Agricultural Service Board may also select an alternate applicant to be awarded a bursary in the event that an individual decides not to attend a post secondary institution, as planned in that year.

Forward this completed application, along with all requested attachments prior to November 30th to:
