

SCHOOL NEWS May 2022

Check out these great posters made by the Grade 8 École Champs Vallée School Art students to celebrate the hard work bus drivers do to get our students to and from school safely each day!

Covenant Christian School Junior High students marked "Red Dress Day" on May 5, 2022.
The students heard from Rae Wedman, who did her "His Story, My Part" research assignment on this topic, as well as Principal Donavin Simmons. Together, they unveiled a picture done by Corey Lansdell, highlighting four missing or murdered indigenous women from the Highway of Tears.

Mrs. Chernenkoff, the Wellness Support Teacher at East Elementary School, provided various opportunities to support wellness throughout the school year. Classes K-6 are participating in a variety of classes such as mindful coloring with a stuffy, peaceful coloring, playdough, yoga, bubbles, chalk, outdoor walks, and small group messages.

École Champs Vallée School hosted a Mental Health Wellness Day for their students. Everyone participated in activities around the school. Activities included Wellness Walks, HIIT Workouts, Social Media and Mental Health, Mindful Eating, Yoga, Shinny hockey, Bike Riding, Zen Doodling and Tea, and much more!

Grade 3 class at Ecole Beau Meadow School wished everyone a Happy Star Wars Day - May the 4th! Check out their cool "May the 4th Be with You" pencil flags. Nice work, Padawans!

Huge shout out to the École Corinthia Park School 3/4 Girls' floor hockey team. They worked incredibly hard this weekend at the Corinthia Cub Cup and walked away with a bronze medal.

The K-12 students at Warburg School took part in their Community Clean Up this month. Thanks everyone, for being such great stewards of our environment!

Mrs. Walker's Grade 2 students talked to Mr. Dykstra at Thorsby High School as well as the high school students about the importance of keeping their schoolyards and the community clean.

The Grade 5 students from Mme LeGassie's class at École Leduc Estates School were excited to construct their very own flashlights during the electricity unit!

The BGSD "Corinthia Cup" Grade 3/4 girls floor hockey tournament brought 12 schools together (and over 150 students) for their first team competition since 2019. A big thanks to everyone who made this weekend possible. And congratulations to all the students.

We would like to congratulate LCHS students Ayden Gruninger for placing 2nd and Bryden Chilson for placing 11th out of 50 in Skills Alberta for welding. Thank you to Skills Alberta for empowering youth through hands-on experiences to help them compete in the 21st century economy.

Finally, some exciting news! Earlier today, the Board of Trustees were joined by City of Leduc Mayor Bob Young, Cree language consultant Brian Lightning, MLA Brad Rutherford, project partners and special guests for a groundbreaking ceremony to celebrate the start of construction on Ohpaho Secondary School -Leduc's newest high school.
